

German Shepherd Dog Club of Greater Washington, D.C.
Presents:

IPO Protection Seminar with Steve House

Sunday, March 4, 2018

PUPS Dog Obedience Training
9050 Red Branch Rd
Columbia, Maryland 20833

9:00 am - 5:00 pm

Whether you are new to IPO (Schutzhund), a veteran competitor, or somewhere in between, come join us for this special seminar opportunity. Steve House is a nationally recognized IPO training expert and has the exceptional ability to bring out the best in any dog when training bite work and protection skills.

Who Should Attend?

- Beginners who are curious about IPO and the protection phase of the sport
- Handlers who want to introduce a young dog to bite work (minimum age 4 months w/all shots)
- Dog/handler teams that would like to have specific protection/bite work issues evaluated
- Experienced IPO dog/handler teams

Seminar Specifics:

- Working Spot: $125.00 (limit 12)
- Audit Spot: $50
- Each dog/handler team will rotate working sessions with Steve throughout the day

About Steve House

Steve House has been training dogs in IPO protection for over 38 years. He is currently a GSDCA national level helper, teaching helper, and the Chair of the GSDCA Helper Committee - a national group that governs the GSDCA Helper Program and the selection of helpers for national level IPO events. During his career, he has worked over 56 events as a helper and has been selected 6 times as the Helper for the NASS/GSDCA Sieger Show (2009-2015). He has worked and trained some of the best competition dogs in the world.

Steve is the Founder, President and Training Director of Tri-City Schutzhund Verein in MD/VA.
